

SOUTH SHORE 5 PUBLIC HEALTH ALLIANCE

Coalition Fact Sheet

Who we are

The South Shore 5 Public Health Alliance (SS5) is a partnership of local municipalities dedicated to enhancing community well-being through collaboration, resource sharing, and innovative public health initiatives. By working together under the Massachusetts Public Health Excellence grant, the towns of Hanover, Marshfield, Norwell, Pembroke, and Rockland strengthen their collective capacity to deliver high-quality, equitable health services that promote wellness and resilience across each community.

What we offer

Preventive Health Efforts

SS5 works directly with each community to not only address health challenges, but prevent them.

Environmental Health

Member towns maintain a commitment to environmental health protection, ensuring each community remains safe.

Community Engagement

SS5 works alongside community members, community partners, and organizations across the state.

Health Equity

The coalition works hard to promote health for each and every community member.
